TRADE MARK

THERE ARE OTHERS.

The Democratic papers are now beginning to attack President McKinley because he has got rid of Secretary Alger.—Beacon.

But the attacks are not confined to the Democratic quarter, by any means. The following are fair samples of how Republicans regard the dismissal: Senator Foraker says that Alger was unjustly made a scapegoat for the mistakes and blunders of the Administration; Senator Proctor, of Vermont, thinks that "in due time there will be a reaction against some of the abuse which has been visited upon Alger"; and Corporal Tanner remarks that, "Alger has been crucified. Alger passes, but mark my words, the trouble continues. Other mistakes will come in the conduct of the War Department."

The only quarrel Democratic papers have with President McKinley concerning Alger's dismissal is that when American soldiers in the fever-stricken and neglected camps of Cuba and the south were dying like "rotten sheep,"—as Col. Roosevelt aptly expressed it—and all on account of the notorious blunders, favoritism and incompetency attending the management of the war department, and when the people were practically unanimous in a demand for the removal of Alger, the President did not have the moral courage to act. But what he could not do in a crisis when the interests of the whole nation and the welfare of thousands of its soldiers were at stake, the President finds himself very able to do when the political interests of himself and his Administration are threatened. This is carrying trimming and expediency too far, and the reaction that is sure to follow will do the Administration leaders no good.

The Beacon takes somebody's word for granted that Wm. J. Bryan dodges the payment of taxes on his household goods, and it is lampooning him accordingly. While the Beacon is pursuing the tax-dodgers with its usual indiscriminating and unsparring night and main, it should not overlook its own household affairs. For instance, the Beacon boasts that it has a perfecting press in its office for which Former Editor Wright paid $5,500, and two typesetting machines which cost $3,000 each. Here is an investment of $11,500 in machinery alone, and yet the records at Auditor Sisler's office show that our contemporary has the parsimony to list all its personal property at the munificent sum of $500. Most newspapers would place a higher valuation than that on their office tools! All of which goes to show that if the Beacon wants to do effective missionary work against the evil of tax-dodging it need not go all the way to Nebraska to find a field to work in.

In his Saturday's communication Senator Alexander charges his neighbor, Aaron Teeple, with "reckless and deliberate falsifying." And in a previous interview Mr. Teeple was charged, conditionally, with being an "unmitigated hypocrite." Unless the Senator is careful his adjectival velocity will equal, if not surpass, the celebrated record made on the day following the Painesville convention. Will somebody kindly whistle for down brakes?

"JUDGE ANDERSON wouldn't appoint me if I were the only man in town," says Mr. J. J. Mahoney, who has the endorsement of more than nine-tenths of Akron's Union men for City Commissioner. This indicates that Mr. Mahoney has at last resigned to the inevitable. But if his Union friends have anything to say about the matter, Judge Anderson will find himself a part of the great American outdoors after November.

And as there are only two censors of any celebrity in America, of the Hon. Geo. M. Anderson, of Summit county, and Geo. Otis, of the Philippines, the DEMOCRAT recommends that Mr. Teeple give the job to Anderson—if this has not been done already.

SEVERAL days ago when Attorney

C. P. Humphrey of Akron read in the Washington dispatches that Secretary Alger had "retired" from the cabinet, he made a sketch of his impressions of the situation, which sketch is reproduced elsewhere in today's DEMOCRAT. The application of the scriptural verses quoted to the Algerian controversy is at once so apparent and so irresistible that the defects in the execution of the sketch will be more than overlooked.

"THEY'RE all for me for Representative," said the Hon. H. C. Sanford to Mr. J. J. Mahoney, last week. "I've got friends now that were never with me before." So thought Alexander before the Painesville convention, and he had divers pledges in black and white to show for it, but everybody knows what happened to Park. Is Col. Sanford's exhilaration only a pipe dream, or is it really founded on promises? The result, in either event, will be the same.

THERE seems to be an indefinable something about the Teeple letters, published in the Beacon in reply to Alexander, that sounds a trifle Andersonian. Some of Senator Alexander's friends do not hesitate to say that they believe that Judge Anderson is the author of the letters, either by person or proxy.

It is a queer coincidence that Senator Alexander takes but one day to answer Aaron Teeple's letters, while the latter takes two to answer Park's. Perhaps the Senator makes such good time because he has no censor to bother with.

COL. DICK will occupy twelve rooms for the Hanna headquarters at Columbus. He will need them, for Mr. Hanna's party is divided into so many factions that if each were given one of the twelve rooms there would not be enough to go around.

"ALGER RETIRES FROM THE CABINET."

And the goat shall bear upon him all the iniquities, and he shall let go the goat into the wilderness."—Leviticus, XVI, 21, 22.

the little steamer, the Drummer Boy at 6:25 o'clock and had a delightful sunlight, twilight and moonlight ride through basin, lake and canal to the hotel. There, at 8:20, the company sat down to a most sumptuous repast consisting mainly, but by no means entirely, of fresh fried blue girls.

their future welfare and commend them to the protection of the Father who doeth all things well.

W. V. R. U.

The ladies of W.V.R.U. No. 2 held their regular meeting Thursday, July 20, with a fair attendance. The Saturday night supper was a success. We will elect delegates at next meeting to the national convention to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, August 28 to 31. It was reported that Sister Gifford is very sick and wants the sisters to call on her. We should all remember the sick.

The following resolutions were adopted:

L. O. O. F. Summit lodge Monday evening had the usual attendance. The first degree was conferred on two candidates. The second degree will be conferred Monday evening.

Akron lodge Wednesday evening had a good attendance. D. D. G. M., S. D. Wurris, and staff, installed the officers for the ensuing term.

Canon Akron P. M., Thursday evening had a fair attendance. The Canton was asked to confer the Patriarch-Militant degree on five candidates for a canon in Cleveland, which the canon has decided to do. There will be a special drill of the team next Wednesday evening.

Nemo lodge Tuesday evening had the usual good attendance. The installing of officers inducted the following into office: Fred J. Gostlin.

$82.40 for relief, $5,847.48 cash in general fund, $18,287.78 general fund, $25,523.33 total assets of lodges.

Short sessions, early adjournments and occasional seasonal refreshments constitute a good diet for the health of all lodges during the summer months.

The reports from all over Kentucky are good, and the next session of the grand lodge promises to show large gains. The work of Grand Master J. W. Pitt Potter has been very successful.

Silom lodge of Boston is 70 years old. The grand lodge at Washington has completed its sixty-fifth year.

MASONIC.

What Constitutes a Good Master.

Joseph Robbins of Illinois, chairman of the committee on foreign correspondence, believes no brother should be elected master who cannot do his work. This is, indeed, desirable, but many lodges of small membership cannot find members thus qualified. We have known successful lodges and masters where the master did not confer a degree, but frequently called some member who never held any office to fill his station during the work. Some masters are good presiding officers or governors, but are bad ritualists, and vice versa. A good master is one that knows that he is incompetent to do good work.

"And Lang Syne" is almost always the closing flourish at Masonic meetings in the "isles of the sea" as well as on the continents.

The three degrees of royal master, select master and superexcellency master of the Egyptian rite are conferred in the council. Royal Arch Masons should take them.

The grand chapter, O. E. S., of Maine, which is only 6 years old, has 50 constituent chapters and 3,319 members, which is a remarkable growth.

Section 71 of the constitution of the grand lodge of New York: "No lodge shall distribute its funds among its members or introduce intoxicating liquors within its lodges or any room adjoining or communicating with the lodge."

In Idaho it costs $6.00 per capita to run the grand lodge. Each of the 29 constituent bodies pays $282.35 annually for the luxury.

The grand lodge of Canada will meet at Ottawa July 19.

Freemasonry has had a little bout with the malcontents in France, and it came out victorious.

Why may not a national body be of advantage to American Masonry to equalize the financial burdens and create uniformity in regulations and ritual?—Trestle-board.

Red Men.

A new tribe was recently instituted in Fall River, Mass., with 50 charter members.

There are 55 councils of the degree of Pocahontas in Pennsylvania, with a membership of 3,900. The receipts for the year were $24,921.15; expended for relief, $9,154.34; funeral benefits, $1,050; other purposes, $13,186.60; total worth of council, $22,805.57.

Joseph Allison, the new great sachem of Pennsylvania, is 42 years old and has been a member of the order 20 years.

Great Sachem Frost of Minnesota states that the order has doubled its membership in the reservation during the past year.

Home Circle.

At the recent session of the supreme council the fourth or $2,500 degree was discontinued, and hereafter a benefit certificate for $2,000 will be the largest one issued.

The annual expense assessment payable by each member was discontinued, and hereafter the expense of management and development will be paid in the form of quarterly dues by each council direct to the supreme treasurer.

Royal Arcanum.

Minnesota and Wisconsin councils contributed liberally to the relief of victims of the tornado at Richmond.

Supreme Tiler W. H. Alt Apper will visit the Twin Cities in September.

BIG FIRE IN TOLEDO.

The C., H. & D. Elevator Burned.

THE LOSS NEARLY $1,000,000.

Building Insured at $185,000 and the Amount on the Wheat Was Unknown.

Terrific Explosion Occurred, Which Rocked Surrounding Buildings.

TOLEDO, July 24.—The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton elevator, located in East Toledo, was totally destroyed by fire, and the loss on buildings and contents was nearly $1,000,000. It was not known how much insurance was on the 900,000 bushels of wheat, but on the burning there was $185,000 in various companies.

The elevator has been unusually busy for the past two weeks, and was working night and day to store the 150 cars of wheat which were received daily. The fact that it was Sunday prevented the fatalities which might otherwise have occurred, for the men had quit work early and had been out of the place about two hours.

A small blaze in the cupola was seen from the outside by passersby. A fire alarm was turned in, but before the department could reach the place a terrific explosion occurred that rocked the foundations of surrounding buildings. The building was almost immediately enveloped in flames, and within ten minutes another and more terrific explosion occurred, which tore out the entire side of the building near the river, and it was this explosion that hurled the watchman, W. E. Welch, who was in the building, out of the flames and saved his life. He was only slightly injured.

The building was a mass of ruins in a half hour after the first blaze was noticed. The work of the fire department was futile, and most of their energies were directed toward saving the adjoining property.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton elevator was largely owned by eastern capital. President Woodford of the C. H. & D. road is president of the company.

An elevator owned by this company was burned about four years ago and the present building was built to be the most complete and perfect in the country. It was provided with every appliance to prevent loss by fire and was a great surprise. The building had a capacity of 1,000,000 bushels and within a few days would have carried its capacity.

The loss to the company will be in the neighborhood of $5,000, while the grain, which is on consignment, will be almost a total loss to the shippers. The quickness of the fire leads to the opinion that some of the grain will be saved in a damaged condition. The fire department claimed spontaneous combustion was the origin of the fire.

Lakes of Killarney Sold.

DUBLIN, July 24.—A. G. Peck of Cohoes Falls, N. Y., has bought the Killarney estate, on the Lakes of Killarney, about which there has been so much talk. The price paid was $27,000. Mr. Peck made a fortune in the United States in the manufacture of axes. He is now residing in London.
